

the per-direction spread is antisymmetric, and the pivot-free average removes it — 140 runs, 10 case/axis groups

● pos tip ● neg tip — midpoint = what the average keeps

(a) the disagreement flips sign with the tip direction

(b) it is a rig constant, not the offset

(c) what reaches the result

